Articles	* Interview: Salman Al-Omari The Secretary General of the World Assembly of Muslim Youth, Dr. Mane' Bin Hammad Al-Jahni, stressed that the main source of funding for the Assembly's activities is mainly based upon the fixed annual budget that the Government of the Custodian of the Two Holy Mosques provides to the Assembly, as well as the aid provided by Kingdom residents. In his interview with Al-Jazirah, he said that the Assembly conducts a comprehensive review of its activities annually, touching upon, addressing, intensifying and supporting important and urgent issues. Dr. Al-Jahni revealed the Assembly's focus and interest in Muslim women and their issues. Indeed, it has established a special committee called the Women's Committee, which has its own various functions and activities. The interview also touched upon several issues such as proselytization and relief programs, problems of the Islamic Ummah, youth camps, coordination with similar institutions, and other important topics. Below is the text of the interview: * The Assembly is considered one of the most distinct Islamic institutions with interest in the issue of Kashmir. Could you share with us some of your efforts on this issue? The issue of Kashmir is a chronic issue. Indeed, its people have suffered from widespread injustice and abuse for over a hundred years, with different forms of persecution depending on the type of colonial class, first the Sikhs, then the English and most recently the Hindus. The issue of Kashmir is a just cause in which the right path is as clear as the sun at midday. Its people are steadfast and have, thanks to Allah, managed to move one third of their homeland, preserve their Islamic identity and successfully resist, which is a sign of victory with Allah's permission. The World Assembly has been able, thanks to Almighty Allah, to play its role of proselytization and relief, spread awareness of the Kashmir issue, rally support for it, support it, create a documentary record of the issue and its development, and provide development, material and moral assistance to the Kashmiri Muslim people. It has also sent Kashmiri proselytizers, teachers and scholars, built mosques, printed Islamic books, supported orphans, widows and martyrs' families, and provided relief to the afflicted and affected. If you would like me tell you about what the Assembly has provided in figures, I say that, with the assistance of Allah, the Assembly has issued 4 books about the Kashmir issue, thirty thousand copies of which have been printed. The Assembly has also issued 4 pamphlets on the issue, 300 thousand copies of which have been printed. In addition, the Assembly has spread awareness about the issue through the annual press file comprised of 9 files, 60 thousand copies of which have been printed. Moreover, the Assembly has participated in about 200 media presentations to spread awareness about the Kashmir issue. It has also distributed close to 25,000 copies of audio and videotapes. In addition, it released the first documentary about Kashmir titled "Kashmir: History and Tragedy". The Assembly also held about 20 press conferences for the Kashmiri Jihad leaders and organized 50 lectures and seminars on the Kashmir issue to introduce the Kashmiri issue to the world in an attempt to bring its true magnitude to the attention of the media. All of these efforts have come as a victory for the Kashmiri people to liberate their land and provide the world with a realistic and unvarnished picture of the brutality and injustice that our brethren there are suffering at the hands of Hindus.

* The Assembly holds many youth camps in a number of countries around the world, what is the Assembly's strategy behind holding camps for the Ummah's youth?

From trial and experience, proselytizers and educators have noticed that youth and student camps have a great and effective impact on participants' spirits, both in terms of influencing their behavior and guiding them in a good direction, and in terms of instilling in them virtuous teachings and imbuing them with Islamic ethics. The region's need is one of the most important strategies considered by the Assembly when organizing camps. For example, in regions suffering from little stability and a lot of war, the Assembly organizes camps for refugees and displaced persons. It uses these camps to provide food and medical assistance as well as Islamic guidance. These include Eastern European countries, Kashmir and others.

As for areas that are often affected by some diseases and disasters and a lack of capabilities, the Assembly organizes medical camps through which it provides assistance and medicines in addition to some small surgeries. These include African countries and some Asian countries.

Finally, the Assembly organizes scout camps aimed, in most cases, at developing the participants' skills, expanding their mental perceptions, filling their free time with beneficial activities, fostering a religious and social spirit among the participants, and helping them get acquainted with each other so they can live in an Islamic environment in accordance with well-studied programs based upon sound educational principles supervised by a group of specialists and educators who have a conscience and good morals. The Assembly usually organizes these camps in America, Australia and a number of Arab countries. Over the course of this summer, the Assembly has held 115 summer activists in thirty-three countries around the world, benefiting 8,000 young men and women.

* How many offices does the Assembly have in the Kingdom and abroad? What is the main source of funding for the Assembly's activities and work?

The Assembly has four main offices in the Kingdom, in the Mecca Region, the Eastern Region, Medina, and the Southern Region. The offices, in turn, have branch offices in Taif, Yanbu, Al-Ola, Wadi Al-Dawaser, Al-Salil, Ahsa, Jubail, Khobar, Khafji, Baqiq, Hafz Al-Batin, Khamis Mushait, Hail and Jazan. In addition, an office was recently opened in Al-Qusaim and another was approved in Tabuk.

The Assembly also has 12 regional offices abroad, and they are as follows:

1. The Assembly's office in East Asia, Indonesia, Jakarta.
2. The Assembly's office in South Asia, India, New Delhi.
3. The Assembly's office in the Pacific Region, Australia, Canberra.
4. The Assembly's office in East Africa, Kenya, Nairobi.
5. The Assembly's office in Nigeria, Lagos.
6. The Assembly's office in South Africa, Malawi, Zumba.
7. The Assembly's office in West Africa, Senegal, Tilles.
8. The Assembly's office in Western Europe, Germany, Cologne.
9. The Assembly's office in Eastern Europe, Romania, Timisoara.
10. The Assembly's office in North America, America, Virginia.
11. The Assembly's office in South America, Brazil.
12. The Assembly's office in Russia, Moscow.

There are also a number of sub-offices and delegates abroad in Azerbaijan, Yemen, Pakistan, Bangladesh, Thailand, Turkey, Sri Lanka, Malaysia, Nepal, Hong Kong, Kurdistan, Ethiopia, Sudan, Somalia, Uganda, Benin, Chad, Tanzania, Togo, Rwanda, Guinea Conakry, Mali, Egypt, Mauritania, Albania, Bosnia, Britain, Bulgaria, Argentina, Canada, and New Zealand.

The main source of funding for the Assembly's activities is mainly based upon the fixed annual budget that government of the Custodian of the Two Holy Mosques, may Allah protect him, provides to the Assembly, as well as the aid provided by this nation's residents.

* Even though there are many scholars and researchers working at the Assembly, we have not heard about or read scientific studies discussing the concerns and problems of the Ummah's youth. What do you have to say about that?

If your intent behind the question is to motivate me to mention everything the Assembly provides in the field of serving Muslim youth and the studies it has prepared about youth, their problems and their concerns, there is nothing wrong with that but I do not think there is time for that. However, if you mean to say that the Assembly has not prepared any scientific studies, I completely disagree with you. The Assembly has prepared hundreds of studies about the concerns of young people. It has also held a special conference titled "Muslim Youth and Contemporary Challenges" to discuss these concerns. It mobilized many scholars, thinkers, writers, specialists and parties interested in youth issues. It also issued important recommendations and formed committees to follow up on the implementation of these recommendations. The Assembly also has many studies, research projects and works that serve this aspect, most important of which are, for example, the book "Model Muslim Youth" about the story of Yusuf (pbh), the book "Youth and Their Problems from an Islamic perspective," the book "The Role of Youth in Carrying the Message of Islam" the book "Good Use of Time," the book "Social Welfare for Youth," the book "Intellectual Invasion in Islamic Perception and How to Confront It," the book "Student Organizations," the book "Islamic Media," and many others. Most of them revolve around issues of interest to young people and contribute to solving the problems and guiding them to a righteous path. This is in addition to hundreds of lectures, research projects and seminars that focus on youth, guide their behavior, identify their priorities and instill righteousness and clarity in them.

* We have noticed that Islamic work suffers from duplication and poor coordination among Islamic institutions, particularly in the areas of relief and proselytization, how can one address that?

In my opinion, the Islamic work does not suffer from duplication and poor coordination. Rather, there is diversity and multiplicity in the means and mechanisms of Islamic and proselytization work. Your question may be intended to discuss unifying the efforts of these institutions and the means of supporting them. This issue hinges on human nature, which has generated diversity in perceptions and mindsets. Indeed, people do not understand events and issues in the same way. Each person looks at them from the perspective of his knowledge, understanding and experience. That is why there is no way to find a common formula for Islamic relief or proselytization work, beyond recognizing the nature of this difference as a starting point from which to move onto the fields of competition. Indeed, everyone is seeking good things. Everyone is in agreement and seeks one goal, which is to please Almighty Allah. Let competitors compete towards that goal.

I would like to point to another point that is no less important than the one I mentioned. It is the realization of the reality we live in and the urgent need to expand the area covered by the Islamic work. Indeed, the arena widens for everyone and there is need for great efforts to meet the current and increasing needs. Struggles are still going on in many countries and hurting thousands of Muslims.

No one claims to alone be able to fulfill the needs of the Muslim community, which is full of wars and catastrophes and is living through a black era. If we realize this, we create space in our hearts to accept the other, bless his efforts and join hands, which is something our religion urges us to do. I do not think that what Islamic organizations collectively contribute even fulfills 15-20% of the needs of Muslims around the world. I conclude here with a recommendation to myself and my brethren working in the fields of proselytization and relief. We should always remember the purpose we are proselytizing and working for, which is seeking the pleasure of Almighty Allah. There is no doubt that this will be a successful balm that will protect us from failure, will help us move forward from a solid foundation, and enable us to establish strong proselytization and relief work founded upon brotherhood and cooperation.

* The Assembly is one of the leading institutions that have focused on Muslim women by opening offices for them. What is the most prominent work that you have done for Muslim women?

The World Assembly pays particular attention to the issues of Muslim women. It has established a special committee called the "Women's Committee," which has its own buildings and various activities. This women-based proselytization work is performed by a group of female leaders in Islamic work.

The Committee has embraced the importance of the role assigned to it given the fact that women are one half the society and the first pillar in building generations. The annual plans were developed, taking into account diversity, inclusivity, innovation and continuity. Thanks to Allah, they have resulted in blessed achievements, including medical, educational, intellectual, relief and social services to women, girls and children in the Kingdom and abroad.

The World Assembly's role in focusing on women is based on several key aspects:

First: Raising women and girls on the correct doctrine and developing their Islamic behavior.

Second: Working to deepen the sense of Islamic pride and strengthen the bonds of sisterhood among Muslim women.

Third: Spreading accurate knowledge about Islam among women and sincerely proselytizing towards it using all appropriate means.

Fourth: Focusing on children, and doing everything to build up their character, root them an Islamic identity, focus their energies, and develop their talents and abilities.

Fifth: Guiding women to use and invest their time in useful and beneficial activities.

Sixth: Spreading awareness among women in the Kingdom about the suffering of Muslim women in the Arab and Muslim world.

Seventh: Communicating with women's organizations in the Kingdom and abroad.

Eighth: Supporting Islamic proselytization activities aimed at women outside the Kingdom.

Over the past few years, one of the branches of the Women's Committee has organized 443 proselytization lectures in Arabic and 115 proselytization lectures in English.

It has also organized 64 Quran memorization, recitation and interpretation circles.

In addition, it has held 24 courses on Islamic doctrine, 20 courses on Islamic jurisprudence, 16 courses on Hadith, 23 computer courses, 15 technical skill development courses and 4 language skill courses.

Moreover, it has organized 5 book fairs, 6 exhibitions about female surgeons in the Muslim world, 5 festivals about useful hobbies, 24 charity events, 33 theater programs, 20 cultural and entertainment concerts, 8 open days for teenage girls, and 14 open days for children. It also made financial contributions to support Muslim issues such as the issue of supporting refugees in Kosovo, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Chechnya and Palestine.

* The Assembly is to be commended for its speedy relief work in disaster areas where Muslims are present, what methodology does the Assembly follow when contributing to various relief works?

The World Assembly of Muslim Youth has its role in disaster areas where Muslims are present. The Assembly follows a methodology in providing relief work focused on uplifting Muslims in these areas, lending them a helping hand, and carrying out the duty of providing relief. The Assembly's methodology for providing speedy relief work in disaster areas is mainly focused on not giving Christian missionary organizations the opportunity to be the sole presence and source of support for Muslims in these areas. That is why, the World Assembly for Muslim Youth has a leading role in providing relief work in disaster areas. Indeed, it was the first Islamic relief organization to begin its work early in Bosnia and Herzegovina, Palestine, Kashmir and Eastern Europe. It also established permanent offices in countries where instability, war and unrest prevail, in order to carry out its relief role in a timely manner and take opportunities away from Christian missionary organizations.

The Assembly provided relief aid totaling eight million riyals during 1418 A.H. [1996/1997 A.D.], which increased to 12.6 during 1419 A.H. [1997/1998 A.D.], and totaled 10.6 million riyals in 1420 A.H. [1998/1999 A.D.]. This is in addition to the camps and the medical convoys, which are run by the Muslim Doctor Committee wherein doctors of all specialties participate, and which go to affected areas to treat Muslims who are injured and affected.

The World Assembly is now participating in joint relief work being carried out by Islamic proselytization and relief organizations within the framework of a comprehensive plan involving all charitable and proselytization organizations.

* What is new that you have not yet announced?

The World Assembly of Muslim Youth conducts an annual comprehensive review of its activities that touch upon, focus on, intensify and support important and urgent issues. What is new with the Assembly lies in its future plan, which focuses on:

First: Intensifying proselytization programs, on which over 9 million riyals were spent over the past year of 1420 A.H. [1998/1999]. That amounts to 14% of the total cost of all of the Assembly's activities. It is comprised of supporting Quran memorization circles, increasing proselytization convoys, and focusing on activating the role of Islamic centers and societies in the world. Indeed, the World Assembly of Muslim Youth supports 156 Islamic societies and organizations, which amounts to 52% of the cost of proselytization programs, including 80 Islamic societies in Asia, 26 societies in Africa, 38 societies in Europe and 12 societies in America.

Secretary General of the World Assembly of Muslim Youth to Al-Jazirah

Second: Supporting the programs that introduce Islam to non-Muslims, invite them to Islam, and increase the number of proselytization messages that the Assembly sends to non-Muslims. Indeed, over the past year, the Assembly sent out 17,629 proselytization letters containing proselytization materials at a cost of 185 thousand riyals.

Third: Spreading the Islamic veil, particularly in Eastern Europe and especially in Bosnia, Macedonia and Albania.

Fourth: Increasing scholarships and student aid for Muslim children, which totaled 2.6 million riyals last year.

Fifth: Intensifying the educational and training courses over the last year. Indeed, the Assembly organized 93 educational and Sharia courses.

Sixth: [Utilizing] the Sheikh Mohammed Bin Abdul Wahhab endowment, which is aimed at establishing a charitable business complex whose proceeds would be used for charitable projects.

الأمين العام للندوة العالمية للشباب الإسلامي لـ الجزيرة

ما تقدمه الهيئات الإسلامية مجتمعة لا يسد 20% من احتياجات المسلمين في العالم!!

* حوار: سلمان الغوري

أكد الأمين العام للندوة العالمية للشباب الإسلامي الدكتور مانع بن حماد الجنهني ان المصدر الرئيسي لتمويل مناشط الندوة قائم أساسا على ما تقدمه حكومة خادم الحرمين الشريفين حفظه الله من ميزانية سنوية ثابتة للندوة، اضافة الى ما يقدمه أبناء المملكة من مساعدات.

وقال في حواره مع الجزيرة ان الندوة تقوم سنويا بمراجعة شاملة لمناشطها متلمسة القضايا الهامة والملحة وتوجه نحوها وتكلفها وتدعمها.

وكشف د. الجنهني حرص الندوة واهتمامها بالمرأة المسلمة وقضاياها، حيث أنشأت لجنة خاصة باسم اللجنة النسائية لها خصوصيتها وأنشطتها المتعددة.

كما طرقب حوار الى عدة قضايا متعددة كالبرامج الدعوية والإغاثية، ومشكلات الأمة الإسلامية، والمخيمات الشبابية، والتنسيق مع المؤسسات المشابهة، وغير ذلك من الموضوعات المهمة،، وفيما يلي نص اللقاء:

* تعد الندوة من أميز المؤسسات الإسلامية التي لها اهتمام بقضية كشمير،، فهل كشفت لنا شيئاً عن جهودكم تجاه تلك القضية؟

قضية كشمير قضية مزمنة امتد الظلم والاجحاف الواقع على أهلها منذ أكثر من مائة عام مع تباين أنواع الاضطهاد حسب نوعية الفئة المستعمرة فمرة السيخ وأخرى الانجليز وأخيراً الهندوس.

وقضية كشمير قضية عادلة ترى فيها الحق واضحاً وضوح الشمس في رابعة النهار وشعبها شعب مجاهد استطاع بفضل الله أن يحرك ثلث وطنه وأن يحافظ على هويته الإسلامية وأن ينجح في الصمود الذي هو بادرة النصر بإذن الله.

ولقد استطاعت الندوة العالمية بفضل الله عز وجل ان تقوم بدورها المنوط بها دعويها واغاثياً والتعریف بقضية كشمير وحشد التأييد لها ومساندتها وايجاد سجل وثائقى للقضية وتطوراتها وتقديم المساعدات الانسانية والمادية والمعنوية للشعب الكشميري المسلم وأوفدت لهم الدعاة والمدرسين وطلبة العلم

وشيدت المساجد وطبع الكتب الإسلامية وكفلت الأيتام والأرامل وعوائل الشهداء وأغاثت المنكوبين والمتضاربين.

وإذا رغبت أن أحدثك عما قدمته الندوة بلغة الأرقام فأقول مستعيناً بالله بأنه بلغ عدد الكتب التي أصدرتها الندوة حول القضية الكشميرية 4 كتب طبعت منها ثلاثون ألف نسخة كما أصدرت الندوة 4 مطبوعات تخص القضية طبعت منها 300 ألف نسخة وعرفت الندوة بالقضية من خلال الملف الصحفي السنوي بـ 9 ملفات طبعت منها 60 ألف نسخة وشاركت الندوة فيما يقارب من 200 معرض إعلامي للتعريف بالقضية الكشميرية.

وزوّرت ما يقارب من 25,000 نسخة من الأشرطة السمعية والمرئية.

كما عقّلت الندوة ما يقارب من 20 مؤتمراً صحفياً لقادة الجهاد الكشميري ونظمت 50 محاضرة وندوة حول القضية الكشميرية لتقدم القضية الكشميرية الى العالم محاولة بذلك ان تأخذ حجمها الحقيقي في بؤرة الاهتمام من قبل الاعلام.

وقد جاءت كل تلك الجهود نصرة للشعب الكشميري لتحرير أرضه ولتربي العالم صورة واقعية بلا رتوش

لما يتعرض له اخواننا هناك من وحشية وظلم على ايدي الحاقدين الهنودس.

* تكثر المخيمات الشبابية التي تقيمها الندوة في عدد من بلدان العالم، فما الاستراتيجية التي تنتهجها الندوة في إقامة المخيمات لشباب الأمة؟

من واقع التجربة والخبرة فقد لمس الدعاة والمربيون ورجال التعليم ان المخيمات الشبابية والطلابية ذات اثر كبير وفاعل في نفوس المشاركين سواء من ناحية التأثير على سلوكياتهم وتوجيهها الوجهة الحسنة أو من ناحية غرس المعاني الفاضلة لديهم وصبغهم بالصيغة الاسلامية وتعظ حاجة المنطقة احدى أهم الاستراتيجيات التي تنتهجها الندوة في تنظيم مخيماتها فمثلاً تنظم الندوة في المناطق التي تعاني من قلة الاستقرار وكثرة الحروب مخيمات اللاجئين والمنكوبين يتم من خلالها تقديم بعض المساعدات الغذائية والدوائية اضافة الى تقديم الارشادات الاسلامية ومن ذلك دول أوروبا الشرقية وكشمير وغيرها. أما المناطق التي تعاني في الغالب من تعرضها لبعض الأمراض والكوارث وقلة الامكانيات فتنظم الندوة بها مخيمات طبية وتقدم من خلالها المساعدات والأدوية اضافة الى اجراء بعض العمليات الصغرى ومن ذلك دول افريقيا وبعض من دول آسيا.

وأخيراً مخيمات الكشافة التي تهدف في أغلب أحوالها الى تنمية مهارات المشاركين وتوسيع مداركهم العقلية وشغل أوقات فراغهم بما يعود عليهم بالنفع والفائدة اضافة الى تنمية الروح الدينية والاجتماعية لدى المشاركين والتعرف فيما بينهم كي يعيشوا في مناخ اسلامي وفق برامج مدروسة على أسس تربية سليمة يشرف عليها نخبة من المتخصصين والتربويين ذوي ضمائر وأخلاق كريمة، وهذه المخيمات غالباً ما تنظمها الندوة في أمريكا واستراليا وعدد من الدول العربية، وقد نفذت الندوة خلال صيف هذا العام 115 منشطاً صيفياً في ثلاثة وثلاثين دولة من دول العالم استفاد منها 8000 شاب وشابة.

اما المصدر الرئيسي لتمويل مناشط الندوة فهو قائم اساساً على ما تقدمه حكومة خادم الحرمين

الشريفين يحفظه الله من ميزانية سنوية ثابتة للندوة اضافة الى ما يقدمه أبناء هذه البلد من مساعدات.

* بالرغم من وجود العديد من العلماء والباحثين العاملين في جهاز الندوة إلا أننا لم نسمع أو نقرأ دراسات علمية تناقض هموم ومشكلات شباب الأمة، فما قولكم؟

إذا كان قصدك من السؤال هو تحفيزي على ان أذكر كل ما تقدمه الندوة في مجال خدمة الشباب المسلم والدراسات التي أعدتها حول الشباب ومشكلاته وهو مهم فلا يأس في ذلك ولا أظن المجال يتسع لذلك، أما إن كنت تقصد أنه لا يوجد دراسات علمية أعدتها الندوة في هذا المجال فلتاً اختلف معك تماما، فقد أعدت الندوة مئات الدراسات الخاصة بهموم الشباب وعقدت مؤتمراً خاصاً لمناقشة تلك الهموم بعنوان الشباب المسلم والتحديات المعاصرة حشدت له العديد من العلماء والمفكرين والأباء وأصحاب الاختصاص والمهتمين بقضايا الشباب واصدرت توصيات هامة في ذلك وشكلت لجاتاً لمتابعة تنفيذ تلك التوصيات كما ان للندوة العديد من الدراسات والبحوث والمؤلفات التي تخدم هذا الجانب ومن أبرزها على سبيل المثال كتاب أنموذج الشاب المسلم في قصة يوسف عليه السلام وكتاب الشباب ومشكلاته من المنظور الإسلامي وكتاب دور الشباب في حمل رسالة الإسلام وكتاب حسن الاستفادة من الوقت وكتاب الرعاية الاجتماعية للشباب وكتاب الغزو الفكري في التصور الإسلامي وكيفية المواجهة وكتاب المنظمات الطلابية وكتاب الاعلام الإسلامي وغيرها كثير ومعظمها يدور حول قضايا تهم الشباب وتساهم في حل مشكلاته والوصول به الى جادة الصواب هذا بالإضافة الى مئات المحاضرات والبحوث والندوات التي تهتم بالشباب وتوجه سلوكه وتحدد أولوياته وتغرس به أسس الاستقامة وصفاء المنهج.

* يلاحظ على العمل الإسلامي الإذوجية وسوء التنسيق فيما بين المؤسسات الإسلامية وخاصة في مجالات الإغاثة والدعوة،، فكيف السبيل لمعالجة مثل ذلك؟

في رأيي أن العمل الإسلامي لا يعاني من ازدواجية وسوء تنسيق إنما هناك تنوع وتنوع في وسائل وأدبيات العمل الإسلامي والدعوي ولعلك تقصد من سؤالك توحيد جهود تلك المؤسسات وطرق دعمها وهذه قضية مرعها الأساس هو طبيعة النفس البشرية التي جبلت على تنوع الأفهام والمدارك والعقول، فالبشر لا يستوون في طريقة فهمهم للأحداث والقضايا، كل ينظر إليها من زاوية علمه وفهمه وخبرته،، ولذلك فلا سبب لإيجاد صيغة مشتركة للعمل الإسلامي سواء الإغاثي أو الدعوي إلا الإقرار بطبيعة الاختلاف هذه لننطلق منها الى ميادين التنافس فالجميع ينشدون الخير والجميع متافقون ويسعون لهدف واحد، هو مرضاة الله عزوجل وفي ذلك فليتنافس المتنافسون .

وأمر آخر أحب أن أشير إليه ولا يقل أهمية عما ذكرت وهو ادراك الواقع الذي نعيشه والحاجة الماسة لاتساع الرقة التي يعطيها العمل الإسلامي، فالساحة تتسع للجميع وهي بحاجة الى جهود كبيرة لتلبى الاحتياجات المطروحة والمترامية فالمرحى ما زالت تدور في كثير من بلدان الأرض لتطحن بين شفقيها آلاف المسلمين.

ولا أحد يدعي أنه يمكنه بمفرده اشباع احتياجات المجتمع الإسلامي المليء بالحروب والکوارث والذي يعيش حقبة سوداء من تاريخه، إذا أدركنا ذلك تكون قد أوجدنا مساحة في صدورنا لقبول الآخر ومبركة جهوده وضم بدننا الى بده وهو ما يحتنا عليه ديننا الحنيف، ولا أظن ان ما تقدمه الهيئات الإسلامية مجتمعة يسد أكثر من 1520% من احتياجات المسلمين في العالم، واختتم هنا بوصية أوصي بها نفسي وأخواتي العاملين في مجالات الدعوة والإغاثة وهي ان تذكرة دائمًا الغاية التي من أجلها ندعوا ونعمل لا وهي طلب مرضاة الله عزوجل، ولا شك ان ذلك سيكون بمثابة البسم الناجع الذي يخصمنا من التزلل ويساعدنا على الانطلاق من قاعدة راسخة وتأسيس عمل دعوي واغاثي متين قائم على الأخوة والتعاون.

* الندوة من المؤسسات الرائدة التي اهتمت في المرأة المسلمة وذلك بافتتاح مكاتب خاصة بها،، ترى ما أبرز الأعمال التي قدمتها للمرأة المسلمة؟

تولي الندوة العالمية اهتماماً خاصاً بقضايا المرأة المسلمة، وقد أنشأت لجنة خاصة باسم اللجنة النسائية، ولها مبانٌ مستقلة بها، وأنشطة متنوعة، ويقوم على هذا العمل الدعوي النسائي نخبة من الرائدات في العمل الإسلامي.

وقد أخذت تلك اللجنة على عاتقها أهمية الدور المنطاب بها من منطلق أن المرأة نصف المجتمع والركيزة

الأولى في بناء الأجيال، فوضعت الخطط السنوية، وراعت فيها التنوع والشمول والتجديد والاستمرارية وقد استطاعت بفضل الله ان تحقق انجازات مباركة قدمت من خلالها خدمات طيبة وتعلمية وفكرية واغاثية واجتماعية للنساء والفتيات والأطفال داخل المملكة وخارجها.

وينطلق دور الندوة العالمية في الاهتمام بالمرأة من عدة جوانب أساسية وهي:

أولاً: تربية النساء والفتيات على العقيدة الصحيحة وتنمية السلوك الإسلامي لديهن.

ثانياً: العمل على تعزيز الشعور بالعزيمة الإسلامية وتنمية روابط الأخوة اليمانية بين المسلمين.

ثالثاً: التعريف الصحيح بالإسلام بين النساء والدعوة الصادقة إليه بجميع الوسائل المناسبة.

رابعاً: الاهتمام بالطفل والعمل بكل ما من شأنه المساهمة في بناء شخصيته وتأصيل هويته الإسلامية واستغلال طاقاته وتنمية مواهبه وقدراته.

خامساً: توجيه المرأة للاستفادة من وقتها واستثماره في الأعمال النافعة والمفيدة.

سادساً: تعريف المرأة في المملكة بمعاناة المسلمين في أقطار العالم العربي والإسلامي.

سابعاً: التواصل مع الجمعيات النسائية داخل المملكة وخارجها.

ثامناً: دعم النشاط النسائي الإسلامي الدعوي خارج المملكة.

وقد نظم واحد من فروع اللجنة النسائية خلال السنوات الماضية ما يقارب من 443 محاضرة دعوية باللغة العربية و115 محاضرة دعوية باللغة الإنجليزية.

وعقدت 24 دورة في العقيدة و20 دورة في الفقه و16 دورة في الحديث و23 دورة في الحاسوب الآلي و15 دورة في تنمية المهارات الفنية و4 دورات في المهارات اللغوية.

كما نظمت 5 معارض للكتاب و6 معارض لجراحات العالم الإسلامي و5 مهرجانات للهوايات المفيدة و24 حفل طبي خيري و33 برنامج مسرحي و20 حفلة سمر ثقافي وترفيهي و8 أيام مفتوحة للناشئات و14 يوماً مفتوحاً للأطفال إضافة إلى العديد من المساهمات المادية في دعم قضايا المسلمين كقضية دعم اللاجئين في كوسوفا والبوسنة والهرسك والشيشان وفلسطين.

* يحسب للندوة سرعة مباشرتها للأعمال الاغاثية في المناطق المنكوبة ويتوارد بها مسلمون..، ما المنهجية التي تتبعها الندوة في المساهمة بالأعمال الاغاثية المتنوعة؟

للندوة العالمية للشباب الإسلامي دورها الاغاثي في المناطق المنكوبة التي يتواجد بها مسلمون، وتتبع الندوة في ذلك منهجهية في تقديم الأعمال الاغاثية قوامها نصرة المسلمين في هذه المناطق، ومد يد العون لهم، والقيام بواجب الاغاثة،،، ومنهجية الندوة في سرعة تقديم العمل الاغاثي في المناطق المنكوبة مرده الأساسي عدم اعطاء الفرصة للمنظمات التنصيرية لكي تتفوق بالمسلمين في هذه المناطق، وتمارس دورها، ولذلك كان للنحوة العالمية للشباب الإسلامي دورها الرائد في تقديم الأعمال الاغاثية في المناطق المنكوبة، بل كانت من أول المؤسسات الإسلامية الاغاثية التي بدأت أعمالها مبكراً في كل من البوسنة والهرسك وفلسطين وكشمير وأوروبا الشرقية، كما أنشأت مكاتب دائمة في البلدان التي تكثر بها الاضطرابات والحروب ويعقب عليها عدم الاستقرار وذلك للقيام بدورها الاغاثي في الوقت المناسب ولتضييع الفرص على المؤسسات التنصيرية.

وقد بلغ قيمة المساعدات الاغاثية التي قدمتها الندوة خلال عام 1418هـ ثمانية ملايين ريال، وزادت في عام 1419هـ إلى 12,6 مليون ريال، ووصلت عام 1420هـ إلى 10,6 ملايين ريال، هذا بالإضافة إلى المخيمات والقوافل الطبية التي تقوم بتسييرها لجنة الطبيب المسلم، والتي شارك فيها أطباء من كافة التخصصات، تذهب إلى المناطق المنكوبة وتعالج المصابين والمتضررين من أبناء المسلمين.

وتتوجه الندوة العالمية الآن في إطار العمل الاغاثي المشترك الذي تقوم به المؤسسات الإسلامية الدعوية والاغاثية للعمل في إطار خطة شاملة تشارك فيها جميع المنظمات الخيرية والدعوية.

وتتجه نحوها وتكتفها وتدعها، وجديد الندوة في خطتها المستقبلية يتركز على:

أولاً: تكثيف البرامج الدعوية والتي بلغ إجمالي الإنفاق عليها خلال العام الماضي 1420هـ أكثر من تسعة

Israel steps up attacks, scraps pullout deal

OCCUPIED JERUSALEM Israel pressed on with its offensive, rounding up Palestinians and razing homes as it insisted there would be no new pullback from the West Bank or Gaza Strip until the Palestinian leadership cracked down more effectively on fighters.

"The Israeli Army will not move so long as the Palestinians are failing to impose calm on the ground by starting to fight hard-line groups," an Israeli security official told AFP, asking not to be named.

After Israeli commanders dashed Palestinian hopes of a redeployment in the West Bank city of Hebron on 23 August, a top aide to Palestinian leader Yasser Arafat accused them of breaking their commitments under the security deal. "The Israeli side refused to respect the engagements it had undertaken under the plans dubbed 'Gaza- Bethlehem First' and that should have resulted in a withdrawal from Hebron," the aide, Nabil Abu Rudeina, told AFP.

Meanwhile, Israeli troops killed Muhammad Hatem Hout, 26, a member of the Al-Aqsa Martyrs Brigades, during clashes. He was mowed down by bullets fired from an armored vehicle that was enforcing curfew in the town.

Six Palestinians were wounded, two of them seriously, by Israeli soldiers on 24 August afternoon during a heavy exchange of fire in the Old City of Nablus, Palestinian hospital sources and witness said.

Israeli tanks posted near the downtown area fired a rocket at a house where Palestinians had taken cover, the sources said. Two of the Palestinians, aged 18 and 23, were badly wounded, the hospital sources said.

Palestinian witnesses claimed all the wounded were civilians from the area who were not involved in the fighting. Since it re-invaded most of the West Bank on June 19, the Israeli Army has imposed a systemic clampdown on Palestinians. It has also rounded up relatives of alleged attackers destroying their houses and threatening them with deportation to the Gaza Strip.

In the Gaza Strip, the Israeli Army razed several Palestinian houses and another building near a Jewish settlement, itself the scene of a failed attack earlier this week, Palestinian security sources said. Israeli bulldozers, accompanied by tanks, stormed into the Deir El-Balah area near the Jewish settlement of Kfar Darom, and tore down three houses and another brick building, they said, adding that the houses were inhabited.

A Palestinian woman was gunned down by a Palestinian group on charges of collaborating with Israel, witnesses in Nablus said.

Israeli officials also stepped up their attacks on Arafat's leadership, as they prepared to welcome a US envoy next week for talks they say will focus on US-Israeli efforts to sideline the Palestinian leader.

The head of the US State Department's Middle East Desk, David Satterfield, a former ambassador to Lebanon, will visit several Arab states as well as Israel to explain why new leadership is required to press ahead with reform of the Palestinian Authority, the officials said.

"The United States, just like Israel, believes that before Palestinian legislative elections are held, the Afghan model must be applied with the establishment of a caretaker government led by a prime minister who can undertake genuine institutional and economic reforms," another senior Israeli official told AFP, asking not to be named.

But the Palestinians swiftly reiterated their rejection of the US pressure to amend their constitution and create a new post of prime minister as a brake on Arafat's powers. "We have told the Americans that it's none of their business," chief negotiator Saeb Erekat told the London-based Arabic daily Al-Hayat on 24 August.

"We were shocked when during our discussions the Americans spoke of changing the electoral law," he told the Arabic-language newspaper. - Agencies

Saudi charities deny funding terrorism

RIYADH - Two Saudi charity organizations on 17 August categorically denied any role in funding terrorism and branded a lawsuit by relatives of the victims of Sept. 11 attackers as a new plot against Islamic charities.

"This is yet another part of a series of accusations which started after Sept. 11 against Islamic charities," Secretary-General of the Jeddah-based International Islamic Relief Organization (IIRO) Adnan Pasha told AFP. "We never had any relation with Osama Bin Laden or any other illegal organizations ... they are targeting Islamic charitable work," Pasha said.

IIRO, one of several Islamic organizations charged in the lawsuit filed on 15 August, says it is active in the field of charity and relief works mostly for orphans in about 95 countries.

"Our work is official. Our financial records are well monitored and audited through international auditors and in cooperation with governments," Pasha added.

Last year, IIRO spent some $33 million on 2,800 projects and more than 44,000 orphans. It maintains offices in many countries, mostly in Africa and Asia.

Meanwhile, Assistant Secretary General of the Riyadh-based World Assembly of Muslim Youth, Abdul Wahab Noorwali, said the lawsuit was part of a "fierce campaign to discredit Islamic charity organizations."

"This is an organized and well-prepared campaign. Their ultimate goal is (to target) Islam as a religion and its charity organizations," Noorwali told AFP. He said the Saudi government regularly monitors WAMY's accounts and its fund-raising operations. Pasha and Noorwali both said joint action was needed to confront the lawsuit. - AN

King Fahd Plaza in Uganda handed over to Islamic University

RIYADH - The King Fahd Plaza, which was carried out at the expense of the Custodian of the Two Holy Mosques in the Uganda capital Kampla, was handed over, on 15 August, to the Islamic University there for operation and investment.

According to a press release issued here on 17 August by the Ministry of Finance and National Economy, the hand-over ceremony was attended by a number of officials from the Ugandan government, the Islamic University and the Saudi embassy in Kampala.

The project was built at a total cost of SR8million and its revenues will go to the Islamic University in Kampala.

The foundation stone of the project was laid by the Ugandan president on 27 November, 1997, in the presence of representatives from the Saudi Ministry of Finance and National Economy and the Saudi embassy in Kampala.

The project consists of two main buildings with a total area of about 7,327 square meters. The front building is made up of eight floors. The ground floor includes commercial shops while the upper floors are designated for offices. This in addition to two basements, one used as a mosque for men and women and the other as a car park. The other two-story building consists of commercial shops and parking lots.

The project is located in two main streets in the commercial district in the center of the capital. It has been supplied with an air-conditioning system, early warnings systems and telephone exchange.

A part of the building has been allocated as a Saudi cultural center under the supervision of the Saudi embassy.

Arrangements are currently underway for an official opening ceremony scheduled to be attended by prominent figures from the two countries. - RD

New mechanism for monitoring pilgrims' accommodation during Hajj

MAKKAH - Prince Abdul Majeed Ibn Abdul Aziz, Governor of the Makkah Region and Chairman of the Hajj Central Committee, issued instructions for the implementation of a new mechanism for monitoring the pilgrims accommodation during forthcoming Hajj season.

This step is being taken to ensure providing pilgrims with the best services and avoiding the shortcomings witnessed in previous years, said Bandar Qabbani, chairman of the committee assigned for inspecting the pilgrims accommodation.

Qabbani said through the new mechanism, pilgrims will be able to choose suitable accommodations before arriving in Makkah, as all the parties concerned, such as the Hajj Ministry, Commerce Ministry, Tawafa establishments and Makkah Municipality would be linked to a unified computer network.

Qabbani said the unified network will display all data concerning Tawafa establishments licensed to provide pilgrims accommodation. This information includes the location of the housing unit, its distance from the Holy Haram in addition to the number, type and speculations of the rooms, available utilities and other services required to provide their pilgrims with comfort and peace of mind.

The statistics showed that last year there were 6,500 buildings housing over 1.5 million pilgrims, but this year there would be 7,000 buildings to accommodate two million pilgrims.

Qabbani explained that linking the concerned parties to a unified computernetwork would make it easier for the committee to carry out effective field monitoring and avoid the shortcomings which were a source of complaints inprevious years

Qabbani called for landlords who wish to rent their buildings for pilgrims accommodations to produce a report from an architectural consultancy office proving that the building is safe and that there is emergency lighting at the entrances and exist, and that the building is provided with smoke detectors and the other required safety measures.

He said that the landlord also need to produce maps defining the location of their buildings, title deeds and maintenance contracts. - SG

Bush is ignoring Muslims now

NEW YORK Several American Muslim leaders who President George W. Bush publicly courted after the Sept. 11 attacks say he is ignoring them now, and some blame conservative Christians and pro-Israel lobbyists for the reversal.

Islamic support, which seemed so crucial as the nation embarked on its war on terrorism, is now losing ground to other concerns, US Muslim leaders say. "There were special interest groups involved immediately after those meetings last fall in trying to dissuade the administration from acting with us," says Salaam Al-Marayati, executive director of the Muslim Public Affairs Council in Los Angeles.

"There's sort of a right wing - whether Christian fundamentalists or pro-Israel groups - that tries to drive wedges between us and decision makers," he says.

Rebecca Needler, a spokeswoman for the American Israel Public Affairs Committee, a leading pro-Israel lobby group, called the claim ridiculous. She declined to comment further.

But Muslim leaders contend they have not met with Bush since last year, when he visited a Washington-area mosque, where he proclaimed Islam a religion of peace, and met with Muslim leaders and social workers at the White House.

The White House noted that it has celebrated Muslim holidays, such as Eid Al-Fitr at the end of the fasting month Ramadhan, while Secretary of State Colin Powell and Treasury Secretary Paul O'Neill have met with Muslim leaders.

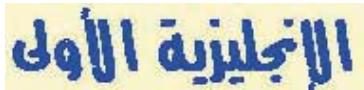

Muslim leaders say guests at the parties have been children and ambassadors from Muslim countries, and that Muslim advocates deal more often with lower-level representatives of government agencies than with Cabinet members.

Muslim leaders also say they have been further disappointed that Bush - the first presidential candidate they collectively endorsed - has failed to more strongly condemn attacks on Islam by Christian conservatives, a strong source of the president's support. - AP

Texas officials gang up on Muslim woman

HOUSTON, Texas (the United States) - Crystal (Ayesha) Ali Khan, a Muslim lady, has been targeted by Texas officials despite being a victim of a vicious assault by two women, according to DawaNet.

In a statement, DawaNet claimed that Ayesha, who is one of its workers, was assaulted by two non-Muslim women accusing her of abandoning her children when she got out of her car to pick up her children's medicine at a Houston Eckerd Drug Store.

"They pulled her Hijab (Islamic veil) off, tore her clothes, and threw her on the floor. The police were called but refused to arrest the attacking women or even press charges against them," said the statement.

It said they cited Ayesha instead for child abandonment. Later, the district attorney took several weeks before deciding that they will not press charges against the attackers.

DawaNet said the DA has pressed charges against the woman for child abandonment. Her hearing is on September 10

The Texas Child Protective Service has reportedly stepped in and issued a notice to Ayesha for an investigation.

A caseworker will visit her and her children and will determine if the children should be taken away.

DawaNet said Texas CPS' record against Muslim parents has been one of the worst in the nation. It said the American Civil Liberties Union, Council on American Islamic Relations, and Muslim Legal Fund are all trying to help, but these are all civil rights groups. "The DA has made it a criminal case. Therefore, the extent to which these groups can help is limited," DawaNet said. The Muslim Legal Fund in Dallas and DawaNet, Houston, are raising funds for Ayesha's defense, it said. - AN

(Qur'an, 55:14-20)

*He created man from sounding clay like unto pottery, and He created Jinns from fire free of smoke: Then which of the favours of your Lord will you deny? (He is) Lord of the two Easts and Lord of the two Wests: Then which of the favours of your Lord will you deny? He has let free the two Seas meeting together: Between them is a Barrier, which they do not transgress: Then which of the favours of your Lord will you deny? ### Sahih Al-Bukhari

Peace be upon you and Allah's mercy and blessings...

The International Islamic Relief Organization in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia is pleased to offer you its kindest regards. It also thanks you for your continued support and for facilitating its missions. May Allah reward you generously.

I am also pleased to inform you that the Organization has opened an office in India (Hyderabad), and that Mr. Fadel Hussein Seif El-Din, a Saudi citizen, has been appointed as manager of that office. Please note that Saudis affiliated with the Organization visit India to supervise the progress of the work and survey the condition of Muslims affected by natural disasters. This requires that the Office Manager receive them at the airport in order to facilitate their exit. However, he is having problems at the parking lots.

Accordingly, we respectfully ask Your Excellency to instruct the Saudi Embassy in India and the Saudi Consulate in Bombay to cooperate with him by facilitating his mission and looking into the possibility of issuing diplomatic license plates for the Organization's vehicles purchased in India, similarly to the facilitations that your esteemed ministry provided to the World Assembly of Muslim Youth in India.

We thank Your Excellency for your kind cooperation.

May Allah protect you...

BODY:

JEDDAH--ISLAMIC Organizations, after September 11, have become the center of world's attention. The international media has pointed an accusing finger at these organizations as one of the sources of funding and producing terrorism.

Dr Abdul Wahab A. Noorwali, Assistant Secretary General of the World Assembly of Muslim Youth (WAMY) in Jeddah talked to the Gazette about WAMY's role as an international Islamic organization, and presented his views on the current international misconceptions and accusations against Islam and Muslims.

Dr Noorwali is originally an Associate Professor, Clinical Biochemistry Department, Faculty of Medicine, King Abdul Aziz University, Jeddah. He was the Chairman of Medical Curriculum Committee between 1982 and 1983. He is a member of the Evaluating Committee for the Haj Health Program in the Ministry of Health. He is also in charge of WAMY offices in African and Arab countries.

Q. How did you get involved with the World Assembly of Muslim Youth (WAMY) Organization?

A. My interest in charitable work began in 1977 when I was a student in the Faculty of Pharmacy, King Saud University in Riyadh. At that time I made several visits to the WAMY headquarters. I participated many times in their activities and youth gatherings and met with their visitors from all over the Islamic world. It became a great interest to me after I left the Kingdom to complete my higher studies in Medical School at the University of Sheffield, England, for I used to be in contact with charity workers of different Islamic relief organizations.

After I came back to the Kingdom I chose to keep charity work as one of my biggest interests along with my work at the university. This desire to help to develop philanthropy urged me to join WAMY and hence I became an active volunteer of the Assembly and that allowed me to visit a large number of African countries through WAMY's activities.

I had a very rich experience in Africa. I found out that most people in Africa never expected to meet Muslims from Arab countries who were interested in their domestic issues and welfare. I have met people who are concerned for their countries' developments but don't have enough finance and facilities. As a Muslim I felt that it is important to support these people, who were mostly Muslims, with whatever help the Assembly can provide them.

Q. What is Saudi Arabia's role in supporting WAMY activities?

A. Saudi Arabia's support has been enormous since the establishment of WAMY in 1963. The Kingdom provides us with a supportive environment that allows us to work openly within the society to collect funds and spread activities. It also provides us with protection abroad through Saudi embassies and consulates, in addition to financial support. Along with the government, the Saudi people are very supportive. People here are very concerned about Muslims' trials and tribulation all over the Islamic world, especially concerning financial support, such as in Bosnia, Kosovo, Chechnya, Palestine, and lately Afghanistan. Perhaps that's because Saudi Arabia is the land of the two holy mosques, which grants it a unique position in the Islamic world.

WAMY has received huge donations from people here, both financial and material. These have been sent to Afghanistan to help the Afghani refugees at the Pakistani border. All donations were shipped to Karachi. WAMY has a big center in Pakistan, which works on delivering the donations to the refugees. WAMY also has sent a relief caravan inside Afghanistan to Kabul and it is working hard on distributing medicine and food. Another huge caravan full of clothes, tents, and nutrition moved from Peshawar last Sunday on the long trip to Jalalabad and Kabul.

Q. How do you see the situation in Afghanistan?

A. We are in contact with our workers in the area and unfortunately the situation in Afghanistan is very bad. Refugees are in great need of help. They are gathered at the Pakistani border yet they are not allowed to enter Pakistan, so they try to cross the border through mountain passes. A large number of the elderly, women and children couldn't do that because it is very hard for them to climb the very cold high mountains, so they are all scattered over the desert. These refugees have left their villages to escape the US military strikes and to come over to Pakistan. According to our contacts in Pakistan and Afghanistan, Afghani refugees can't even find bread to eat. The childbirth rate is very high and two women out of five die during labor. The death rate is very high among children under five years old. International relief organizations (such as the UN and Red Cross) said that 6 million Afghanis might face death during the winter if they are not helped quickly.

Q. How difficult is it for the relief workers to keep up their work during the heavy strikes?

A. The WAMY team in Afghanistan reported that they are facing difficulties in delivering aid. They are facing the danger of getting hit on the roads by US airline strikes. The bigger problem is that the aid must be delivered to remote villages around Jalalabad and Kabul and the road leading to those areas are mostly destroyed.

Q. What are other projects WAMY had in Afghanistan?

A. Around 1986, WAMY established a district hospital in Pakita province. The hospital was damaged several times during the war. In 1989, the hospital was rebuilt and fully equipped with all the necessary medical supplies to cover the health needs of the area. The total number benefiting from this hospital is over 30,000 people.

Q. Are there any WAMY offices around the world? In Europe and America particularly? How do these offices deal with the western world's attitude towards Islamic organizations after Sept. 11?

A. Yes, WAMY has offices in Germany, the United Kingdom, Canada and the United States. We didn't meet with any problem so far in these countries and the offices' activities are working on their regular basis. WAMY centers are just offices with a small staff and don't catch the attention of the public abuse, but the places that are in the focus of attention are mosques and Islamic schools and centers.

Q. Did WAMY bank accounts in the western countries draw any investigations of any sort?

A. WAMY's bank accounts had been watched over closely by the western governments even before September 11. This is a routine security action done by those governments for all bank accounts owned by any Islamic organization. Actually, we haven't been questioned about our funds at all.

Q. Do Islamic organizations receive any support from governments in western countries?

A. Sometimes the governments don't make our jobs easy. There are hundreds of Christian, Jewish, and even Buddhist Organizations in those countries, yet the Islamic organizations are usually the ones that face obstacles in getting permission to establish schools or centers and even tight investigations of these organizations' bank accounts.

Q. Why can't the voices of official Islamic organizations and Muslim communities (which have become large in western countries) reach governments?

A. I think there are several reasons. First, there is a lack of media and administrative coordination between the Muslim populations in each country and the local official Islamic Organization and Centers. Second, some of the official administrative leaders in those countries have fanatic attitudes (some of them are Jews) against Islam, so they try to limit the activities of the Islamic organizations. About three years ago, Islamic schools were not allowed in those countries. Though they were official schools under the supervision of local ministries of education, they were not allowed because they had Islamic curriculums. There are a large number of needy Muslims in western countries who are living on the help of the Islamic organizations, which are facing such restrictions.

Q. How do you see the Islamic organizations? Are they enough in number and in financial strength?

A. Unfortunately, the number of Islamic organizations is too few for the need. The budget for Islamic organizations in Saudi Arabia and the Gulf countries is no more than one billion Saudi Riyals, while the church in the US collected $146 billion during the year 2000.

Q. Do you think that your role, as an Islamic organization, has become more complicated after September 11?

A. In fact, our job has become a little more difficult due to the world's misconception of the Islamic organizations' role because of what the western media has said.

However, I can say that WAMY is still serving the cause of helping distressed Muslims around the world in addition to calling for Islam among the youth through our various educational programs.

Today we are conducting a project to translate more books and pamphlets on Islam into many languages. We have about ten pamphlets on Islam translated into Chinese for our offices in Taiwan and China. We are sending more books to our offices in Latin America as well.

Q. How do you see the role of Islamic and Arab media in handling the picture of Islam and Muslim issues?

A. Muslims and the Islamic media usually discuss among themselves. They are not used to presenting their cause to the others with opposing points of views, or learning how to give information in the best way. After September 11, western people started to ask about Islam and wanted to learn more about it. There is a great demand for books on Islam! I remember that at the International Frankfurt Book Exhibition, which was held recently, the books on Islam were all bought on the first few days. However, Islamic organizations were not ready with enough books and that is because we mostly expect that Islamic books might be bought only by Muslims. There is still a shortage of books and pamphlets and materials printed in different languages to answer people's need to know more about Islam.

Q. The Muslims' image today has been mixed with terrorism. People around the world are confused between a Muslim Da'ia and a terrorist. Do you think there is a challenge for the Islamic organizations and media?

A. I believe that Muslim and Arab countries need to establish a big strategy for that. There is a need to build media channels in languages in the western world and to gather western intellectuals and Muslim intellectuals and scholars in order to hold a discussion on what Islam is and its relation with other religions, with life and with globalization.

In WAMY, we are trying to break the barriers between non-Muslims and Islam through a number of lectures and seminars. We also have a few broadcasts in Africa and Russia, yet still there are not enough facilities.

There are many projects planned to establish satellite channels to be telecast from within the Arabic world to America and Europe in English and French, yet there are not enough funds. People mostly consider donating money for relief purposes. If we are to talk about huge funds and investments, it must come from governments or maybe philanthropic businessmen. However, business people need to be guaranteed a financial reward from these projects before they invest huge amounts. That is because media channels in general cost a great deal to have a strong effect.

The other obstacle we are facing is that it is also not easy to build local Islamic media channels within western countries because we will meet with the same obstacles we had over permission for Islamic schools before! Yes, it is a big challenge.

Q. In your opinion how can WAMY and other Islamic organizations, and Muslim scholars, present a correct understanding of the concept of "Islamic Jihad"?

A. Over the last 20 years, the Islamic world has been very occupied with the "relief of our Muslim brothers" idea. We had Afghanistan against the Russian occupation, Bosnia, Kosovo, Chechnya, the recent Palestinian Intifada, and now Afghanistan again. Muslims and Islamic governments were deeply involved in supporting other Muslims in distress. According to UN reports, 70 percent of wars are in Islamic countries and 80 percent of the world refugees are Muslims, and they need relief quickly. So time and effort were spent mostly on relief and support, rather than introducing Islamic concepts to the world.

There must be established a world definition of 'terrorism'. People should differentiate between "self defense," which is the other correct word for "Jihad," and "terrorism." Palestinians defending their home and families against the Israeli occupier are not terrorists. There are some extreme attitudes toward Islam in the world that are presented by western media to give a wrong conception of Islamic Jihad. The word jumps to the world's mind with every single bombing, though most of the time those responsible are not Muslims. The world must know that what terrorist groups are doing is far from the right Islamic path.

Jihad in Islam has laws and requirements that only Muslim scholars and authorities have the right to apply, for certain causes which are "pure self-defense". No Muslim individual can undertake it as a personal decision, for this is not accepted at all by Islam.

Q. Why is there so small a number of Muslim Da'ia persons who call for Islam?

A. I believe that the funds for educating Muslim Da'ia are too limited. Many people believe that a donation and charity should go to support a catastrophe relief or to build a mosque or to help orphans (which are some of the activities conducted by WAMY). Islamic communities should be aware of the importance of the Muslim Da'ia role in the future of Islam. We need well-educated Muslims in every field.

Q. What is your reply to the western media's accusation that religious universities and schools in the Kingdom are environments feeding terrorists?

A. I say to them that the Islamic University in Madina, for example, is a 30-year-old educational institute. Thousands of students have graduated from it. Are all those graduates from all over the Islamic world terrorists?

Religious curriculums teach youngsters about the pure Islamic basics, Holy Qur'an reciting and the prophet's (peace be upon him) noble Hadeeth. Students start learning how to pray and how to give Zakat (Islamic charity) in lower grades, and Islamic behavior and highly ethical concepts in the upper grades.

Q. How does WAMY contribute to protecting youth from getting involved in these extremist groups?

A. Muslim youth are always under strong pressure. They see Muslims are killed, children and women were abused in distressed Muslim lands like Palestine, where no UN organization is helping to stop the brutality of Israeli occupation. This pressure has resulted in a tendency among young people to help stop those crimes against Muslims. That's why we see in a number of Islamic countries mass protests, which are sometimes violent.

WAMY's role here is to teach youth through camps held in a large number of Arab and Muslim countries. In these youth gatherings, which number 200 camps per year, we aim to get young men involved in pedagogical programs, sports, social and volunteer works, picnics, learning computer skills, attending Islamic lectures on how Islam is a moderate religion. We also discuss with these young people current issues in the Islamic world. Through these camps, youths become more educated and are protected from getting involved in extremist or terrorist groups. Most young people drawn to such groups lack a proper Islamic education.

Q. Is there any cooperation between WAMY and other international organizations?

A. Yes, WAMY is registered in the UN as an international non-governmental relief organization. The International Bank has supported most of our projects in Yemen. UNICEF has also contributed to our relief and educational programs for children.

Q. It is known that the Islamic Development Bank (IDB) provides Islamic organizations with certain funds. Could you explain the IDB's role?

A. The Islamic Development Bank has a special fund for Islamic Charity Organizations. The IDB funds projects in Non-Muslim countries, which have Muslim communities, and in Muslim countries as well. It helps build mosques, schools, hospitals, and Islamic centers and it coordinates with these countries or with Islamic charity organizations such as WAMY in order to provide these projects with operation systems and staff.

There are many projects, such as Institutions and colleges, run by WAMY in Somalia and Nigeria. WAMY also provides Muslim students from all over the world with scholarships to universities and the IDB funds them.

Q. How many students have been provided scholarships by WAMY?

A. A total of 2,500 students have received a scholarship from WAMY to a number of universities and for different subjects. Through these scholarships WAMY aims to create good Muslim individuals who can be beneficial to their countries. Many of the students who were provided scholarships by WAMY have acquired good positions in their homelands. For example, one of our students has become the Minister of Justice in the Republic of the Comoro Islands. Another student from Malawi has become the ambassador of his country in Libya.

HRH / Prince Bandar Bin Sultan Bin Abdulaziz

The Kingdom's Ambassador to Washington, D.C. May Allah protect him

Peace be upon you and Allah's mercy and blessings...

I am happy to inform Your Highness that the Assembly has moved its office in North America to Washington, D.C. in order to be near the Embassy of the Custodian of the Two Holy Mosques and enjoy Your Highness's support, which we have witnessed for hard work in general and Islamic work in particular.

I previously spoke with HH Prince Mohammed Bin Faisal about the Assembly's office, its presence in Washington, D.C., and its need for support so it can undertake and oversee the Assembly's activities in the Americas.

He promised, may Almighty Allah reward him generously, to provide true assistance and help as per Your Highness's directives.

The Assembly's office in Washington, D.C. has sent us an estimated budget of about USD 750,000 for the purchase and furnishing of an office and for the first year's budget, establishment and operation expenses, etc.

Since the Assembly's budget cannot accommodate this aforementioned sum, I ask Allah and then Your Highness to support this office's activities by contributing two million dollars. This way the office can provide Islamic work in America and abroad and carry out distinguished activities that befit the Kingdom's name and Your Highness's support for the work, as well as allow this work to be elevated under the auspices of the Kingdom, ensure that the flag of Islam flies high, and serve Muslim youth around the world.

Allah is at the core of intentions, and we ask the Almighty to grant you success as He wishes and sees fit.

HE Prof. Abdullah Abdul Mohsen Al Turki

Date: 04/09/1416 AH

Minister of Islamic Affairs, Endowments and Guidance

Head of World Assembly of Muslim Youth

May Allah Bless Him

Peace, mercy and blessings of Allah be upon you.

Supervision tasks of the Assembly's office in Washington have been assigned to Abdullah bin Laden, according to the nomination and election of the general assembly of the Assembly in the previous year. Abdullah is a teacher at the Institute of Islamic and Arabic Studies in Imam Mohammed bin Saud Islamic University in Washington.

Due to the increasing activities of the office in both Canada and USA, and due to the office's dire need for a full time supervisor who dedicates his time and effort to work and follow-up, I communicated with head of Imam Mohammed bin Saud Islamic University in Washington to approve assigning Abdullah and give him the full time in the Assembly's office with No. 2614 on 15/05/1416 AH, but the head of the University apologized for not approving the assignment (attached copy of the request and apology).

Due to the continuing dire need to give Abdullah the full time, I hope for your Excellency to personally interfere with the University to approve the assignment, or transfer him to the Ministry of Islamic Affairs then assign him and give him the full time so as the office shall continue the course of the work it started in this important area of the world.

I'm grateful and appreciative for your Excellency's continuous efforts to support the assembly.
May Allah reward you well.

Peace, mercy and blessings of Allah be upon you.

Greetings,

I previously sent to your Excellency letter No. 4970 dated 04/09/1416 AH regarding the dire need of the Assembly's office in the USA to have Abdullah bin Laden for a full time position and your Excellency kindly approved his secondment to the Assembly after being appointed in the Ministry.
